UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S COURT. Before George W. Morton, Esq.

Juan 30.—In the matter of the alleged slave brig Braman, Captain Pelano was the first witness called, and his crew examination was cutered upon as follows:—

I have been engaged as Captain of the John Potter, running between New York and Boston; some one told me the day the Braman was to sail that an affidavit had been filed in the United States Marshal's office against the vessel; I don't know the person who told me; I have never sees him before and have not seen him since; he did not nativise me to take care of myself; he said the vessel would be seized after leaving the wharf; I told Mr. Frazer of the fact; I went to the St. Nicholas Hotel to see M. Ba Costa, but did not find him in; I have been on the const of Africa, once in the Stephen H. Townsend, once in the bark John Notter, as angular, they were all legal voyages; I was in the employ of Mr. Machardo; I saw the flag with a red ball in it at Da Costa's room, at the St. Nicholas, or the Hraman; no see was present but Mr. Rosenberg and Da Cappa when I was introduced to Ita Costa; I received my papers from Mr. Rosenberg, which I was to show, if the yearel was seized off Sandy Hook, or at Gardiner's bay; I may Da Costa sign the papers; the understanding was that they were a ruse; Da Costa wanted me to go on Saturday, the 7th of June; he wanted me to go without any papers, or if they made any difficulty at the Custom Issue to let him know it; I made Da Costa believe I could not get away on Saturday, because I did not went to go; I thought the vessel would be seized; Frager resided at No. 21 Gouverneur street when I saw him; I am on bail as a witness now; Captain May is my bail; I am't know his business at present, if he has any; he is an old on ast Wednesday; Mr. Mevin, one of the United States marshals, came over after me; he said he was some for me; I have not been told that if I would testify here I should be discharged from jail; no money was ever sowed me to tessify in this case; I had no offer of any measured. Before George W. Morton, Esq. m 80.—In the matter of the alleged slave brig Bracome for me; I have not been told that if I would testify here I should be discharged from jall; no meney was ever effered me to testify in this case; I had no offer of any proceeds in the condemnation and forfeiture of the vessel and cargo, further than what I owned, that was on board; I had on beard a quadrant, some charts and other chings; I told if. Hagiand that I would save what was mine on ship, but not that I was te make anything else; Mr. FeAngelis told me I would save may things; the proposition to become a witness in the case was my own; I had get tired of being impressed; I wrote a note, making the proposition to Mr. De Angelis; in this note I stated that I was tired of imprisonment, and effered, If I could be released, and get things back, that I would come forward and tell all I knew thout the Braman and her destination; I told Mr. In Owist the assate thing, and he told me that I was a d—d fool; he said that if there was a prospect of my being imprisoned all summer, that he would try and get bail for me; before this he had told me he could not get bail for me; leavened and tell that if there was a prospect of my being imprisoned all summer, that he would try and get bail for me; before this he had told me he could not get bail for me; leavened and me to the scrape, to get me out of st; Mr. Benedict and Mr. In Costa camete the jail tegether; Mr. R. said that I a Costa wanted to bail them all, but he would not st him to it; Mr. Da Cotas was present at this conversation, and the mate of the Braman and two-ethers; Mr. Benedict said Mr. Bachado would not go bail for his grandither, much less for me; I believe their point was to that me remain in jail and suffer the whole brunt of the office and soid the said bail of the was the matery and believe so naw; I am serious in this statement; Mr. Benedict first filed a claim of myself on the matery had been a claimed for the vessel; I saw this statement in the Harath; he wished me alterwards to the action where actions dowards me; I hought them trying to be ca the the claim.

The District Attorney here showed the claim of the vessel, as filed by Mr. Frager. This Mr. Frager, he added, was not to be found except upon paper.

The claim for the cargo, as filed by Mr. In Costa, was also produced. This Mr. In Costa, the District Attorney added, had ran away and could not be found.

Witness, resuming—I decline to answer where I board; I decline because I do not care to let Mr. In Cunha know where I live; there have been parties to the full since where I live; there have been parties to the full since the proceedings in this case commenced; they were there to pay the board of the officers and crew of the Braman; Mr. Benedict and by Costa were there on Friday last for this purpose; I know this fact from the statement of Mr. Hyland and a young man; I recogdise the person present as Mr. schaneck, the captain of the Young America, which towed the Braman out; I caployed him is accordance with Braman out; I caployed him is accordance with the order of Mr. Da Costa; I wentright from Mr. Pa Costa; to be Castro, to engage a boat; I saw the Young America in the stream, and halled her at random; afterwards I told De Castra the vessel I had engaged; he said he was sorry I had engaged this to shoat, as, her captain once nearly runned him; he towed down his last vessel, and went and told of the fact; an hour or so before the vessel was towed out the captain met us in Wall street and asked me for $2.25, to pay for the register; Fraser, who was present, told us not to speak to him, as he did not wish the captain of the Young America to know that he knew them.

John Schenck was next sworn, and testified as follows:
—I am the captain of the Young America to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman down the harbor; I was engaged to tow the brig Braman of the Young America; I started to tow the brig Braman of the Young America; I went there and saw the captain, and got his directions to meet Captain Delano, of the brig, at the Custom House; I went there and saw the captain, and got his directions as to towing out the Braman; I don't know of any one by the name of Frager; I have been to Josephs; house in Gouverneur street; and do
